

Home Learning - Ideas Bank

Reading	Oxford Owl Big Cat Collins CBeebies Bedtime Stories Local Library Audio books (Free)	Outside Art	Go on a walk and find a stone. It must fit into your hand and be round. You are going to make a 'support stone'. Decorate the stone with things that make you smile/give you warm feelings/make you feel safe. When you are worried or are feeling a little out of sorts. Hold your stone, feel its weight, think about your worry, tell someone your worry, then replace your stone and feel the weight being lifted once again till next time.
Phonics	Recap the videos on YouTube for Set 1,2&3 of RWInc. Oxford Owl also have online versions of the coloured RWInc books to read onscreen.
Spelling	Children could practise reading and spelling the days of the week. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mXMofxtDPUQ

Home Learning - Ideas Bank

Art	Draw or paint your worry. What would it look like? What shape is it? What colour might it be? Does it change colour depending on how you feel?  An illustration of a young girl with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a blue dress, looking at a large, bright yellow, circular shape with a black horizontal line and two small black dots, resembling a smiley face. The background is a light, textured grey.	Cooking	Make your own potato smiles. https://www.yummytummyarthi.com/homemade-potato-smiley-recipe-potato/  A photograph of several golden-brown, fried potato rings arranged on a white plate. A small glass bowl of red ketchup is placed next to them.
Cooking	Make your own chocolate fudge Cupcakes https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/chocolate-fudge-cupcakes	 A photograph of several chocolate fudge cupcakes decorated with colorful sprinkles, arranged on a wire cooling rack. There are also small bowls of sprinkles and a wooden spoon visible in the background.	